

Rajasthan Vintage Textile Pack

This pack contains over 500 grams of fabric pieces from the Rajasthan, Maharashtra, Punjab and Gujarat provinces of India. They have been made, worn and washed by women from Indian tribal communities. Some are cotton, some are silk and blends of other materials. The designs are a mixture of both traditional and unique contemporary. All are pre-loved. Each piece is handmade and has its own story of colour, romance and varied cultural experiences. The women who wore these beautiful pieces are of diverse religious and ethnicity including Muslim, Hindu, Jain and Christian. The pieces are small measuring approximately 10cm-20cm and include beautiful embroidered and unique beaded examples.
